OUTLINE PLANS FOR GLENDALE AVENUE ACHIEVEMENTS

Aims of Association Told In Statement; Meeting Will Be Held on Friday

Harry C. Levey of 811 South Glendale avenue, chairman of the Glendale Avenue Improvement association, has called a meeting of that organization for Friday night at 7:45 o'clock in the council chambers of the city hall at which time committees will report progress on matters of vital interest to residents along that thoroughfare.

A statement presenting the aims of the association has been prepared for Mr. Levey by T. W. Watson, former city manager, who is now with the R. L. Kent company, and it gives the program to be carried out as follows:

"Glendale avenue occupies an important position inasmuch as it extends across the city from San Fernando Road through the eastern business section and connects with Verdugo Road at the entrance of Verdugo Canyon. It is at once a business street, a residence thoroughfare and an important part of the city's general highway system. Like the other streets mentioned its development is of interest to the entire city and should receive the same general support that is given to the development of the other streets mentioned heretofore.

No Local Passenger Service

"There is a condition prevailing on Glendale avenue that is not to be encountered on any of the other streets mentioned, namely, the street is occupied by a steam railroad giving no local passenger service but using the street solely for the hauling of freight. This is contrary to the object for which this property was dedicated inasmuch as the dedication of Glendale avenue for street purposes was intended to be beneficial to the abutting property. The existence, however, of this steam railroad has an opposite effect inasmuch as property values thereon are adversely affected thereby and when the extent of the frontage that is thus affected is taken into consideration it may be readily realized that this is a matter of extreme importance to the city as a whole and especially important to the owners of property thus affected.

Dinner Rally for C. of C. Supporters to Be Held on Friday

All old Chamber of Commerce members who have obtained one or more new members since the rally, September 6, and the new members are entitled to a dinner Friday night, September 30, at 7:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church. There are about 250 eligibles for this event, according to the secretary.

The board of directors, city council city and city manager, besides the membership committee, will gather at the banquet board and enjoy the meal set up by the women of the First Methodist church. Invitations are being mailed today to those who are entitled to attend.

BIRTHDAY PARTY IS GIVEN

Mrs. A. R. Chappell, 338 Vine street, entertained with a most delightful birthday party Tuesday for their daughter Marguerite. The home was beautifully decorated in honor of the occasion and the table was a fairy dream of pink and white. The centerpiece was a vase of pink amaryllis—the favors and flower baskets filled with candy, as well as the tiny candle in its silver candlestick, which adorned each place, were all of the same soft pink color.

The children enjoyed an afternoon of games before enjoying the delicious refreshments of which the big birthday cake with its eleven shining candles was the most irresistable portion. Those who had a part in this jolly party were Alma Louise ell, Dorothy Van Dyke, Virginia wley, Josephine Franklin, Edna ll, Margaret Lou Cory, Jean Wilms, Janice Tuttle, Wilma Kulp, nces Kulp, Dorothy Leash and rguerite Chappell.

ENDLY SOCIETY MEETS

short but well-attended meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society, of which Miss Louise Ayala is president, was held in the guild hall of St. Mark's church last night. Several events which are planned to be given by the society during the winter were discussed. Miss Litch, a recent newcomer to Glendale, told of the work of the Girls' Friendly society at Gardner, Mass. At the next meeting of the society the outline of work for the month of October will be taken up.

THAT'S ALL

Where There's No Fear
E. F. Sanders at Bat
What 'The Colonel' Says
$2,000 Made in a Day

By Gil A. Cowan

FEAR forces people in the east to find more congenial climes. Such is the story of almost every other homeseeker in California today. There are those who fear the lightning in the summer and others who abhor the idea of snowdrifts in the winter.

Yet economic conditions are more powerful factors in the rapid colonization of the west than all the rest combined. As winter approaches in Kansas, for instance, a coal strike impends. There is every indication that hundreds will go hungry or cold.

In addition to the mine crisis, the railroads see another tie-up. Factories face shutdowns as a result, and the farmers fear a "freeze out" in the everlasting struggle for existence.

Therefore, it is not strange to see the never-ending influx of tourists, people who are comfortably well off, who want to enjoy the rest of their days in a land where fuel is but a minor matter and motor roads bring the fruit of the farms to the doorstep at nominal cost. That is why a home in Glendale is worth twice the price elsewhere. And the east knows it!

H. C. Witwer, who has been hibernating in the suburbs of New York, packed the family valise and the family onto a train last Sunday and started for California. To readers of the Saturday Evening Post, the American, or Colliers, Witwer's name spells the latest in slang.

The story of this writer's life would fill a book, but the fact that he realizes Southern California is as fertile field for the slinging of slang shows he has the same rare judgment of a thousand and one famous authors who were first attracted here by the films.

Now we are willing to bet our old straw hat or a gallon of ice cream or anything within the realm of a newspaper man's pocketbook that E. F. Sanders, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, can bring the Witwer family to Glendale. It's a safe bet for both.

At Pomona Friday night a pretty compliment was paid H. Elmo La Breque, director of the Greater Glendale Merchants' Exposition held here recently. During the progress of the Pomona Valley fair's night session Ray L. Galvin of the Buick agency, representing the Glendale business men, climbed up on the runway and stopped the show.

Right then and there he presented "the Colonel" with a 17-jewel Waltham watch, its beautiful gold case being engraved, "H. Elmo La Breque by Merchants of Glendale." Say, you ought to have seen him smile. Then he told everybody present about Glendale and what a big bunch of boosters we have here. Atta boy, "Harry." Come again.

Not so many days ago "the Colonel" was standing on the runway in the exposition tent here and driving home the slogan, "Buy it in Glendale if it is just as good or better and costs no more."

It was a dramatic means of emphasizing "Trade at Home," for Mr. La Breque was surrounded by merchants' displays and aided by mannikins showing what this city has to offer.

The echo of this event is to be found in the advertising columns of The Glendale Evening News and the shop windows and the stores themselves. The spirit of enterprise inculcated by the explosion remains and the most is being made of it.

Opportunities exist in Glendale today equal to those of years gone by. Some sit around and say "I wish I had bought this lot" or that lot as the case may be. "Look at the profit the other fellow made which might as well been mine."

Sure and look at the profits that might be yours today if that cloak of procrastination was shed and a little luck mixed into your good nature.

Day before yesterday a realtor sold a man a lot for a set sum in the early hours of the working day. He went whistling on his way unmindful of the investment. Evening came and when he reached his cottage door there stood the real estate man with a buyer who offered $2,000 more than was paid for the property.

Fairy tale? No, that's a fact folks. It happens 'most every day in Glendale.

Fred Deal, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph offices here, learned through this column of The Glendale Evening News that his "brightest bunch" of telephone operators ought to have their home town newspaper to read so forthwith he subscribed for an additional copy daily for the recreation room reading table.

That's what you call prompt action!

MAKE NEW EFFORTS FOR COMPLETION OF LOOP LINE

Renewed efforts on the part of the Chamber of Commerce Pacific Electric railroad extension committee to bring about the completion of the east Glendale loop, which now stops at Broadway and Sycamore canyon boulevard, are outlined in a letter written by T. W. Watson, former city manager who is now with the R. L. Kent company.

Following is the information forwarded to E. C. Johnson, chief engineer of the Pacific Electric:

"I am writing you on behalf of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce Railroad committee in regard to obtaining an extension of the Pacific Electric Glendale transportation lines to the rapidly developing districts that lie east and west of the main line on Brand boulevard at a distance too great to be conveniently served thereby.

Delayed by War

"You are well acquainted with the efforts of this committee extending over a period of several years to obtain an extension of the Pacific Electric lines from the intersection of Brand boulevard and Cypress street through the southeastern and eastern section of Glendale, returning to the main line by way of Broadway. The committee, as you know, worked faithfully on this project and obtained subscriptions sufficient to purchase the right of way as agreed and actually collected sufficient money to acquire about 80 per cent of it. The great war, however, delayed matters and during the reconstruction period that followed the committee has not seen fit to proceed with the original plans. The committee feels, however, that its efforts should be renewed either to ob-

The Evening News Not Furnished With Any L. A. Newspaper

The Glendale Evening News is strictly a Glendale institution. It is owned, controlled and its policies directed by Glendale citizens. The publisher resides in Glendale; so do the employes. The Glendale Evening News, therefore, stands wholly on its merits as a home newspaper. It is not issued as a supplement to any Los Angeles newspaper. It is not a party to any clubbing schemes. The publisher believes that the city of Glendale is progressive enough to support a local newspaper without the assistance of a Los Angeles newspaper or outside control. Glendale, the publisher of The Glendale Evening News believes, is able to stand forth as a separate community and as such give willing patronage to its home newspaper.

So The Glendale Evening News is NOT distributed with ANY Los Angeles newspaper. Therefore, those desiring this home newspaper, the output of a Glendale institution, in business here under one management for more than eight years, must remember that it cannot be obtained by giving a subscription directly or indirectly to a Los Angeles newspaper. The Glendale Evening News is located at 139 South Brand; the telephone number is Glendale 132. The management is pleased to serve a home newspaper to a home community, for local money, local made, should stay at home for local trade.

F. W. Furbeck's Father Is Killed In Accident

F. W. Furbeck, of the Furbeck Art Shop and Studio, 215 South Brand boulevard, was notified last night of the accidental death of his father, Robert Furbeck, 530 North Larchmont boulevard, Los Angeles. The accident occurred at 7 o'clock last night in front of the home of the deceased, Mr. Furbeck being struck by an electric car and instantly killed.

Mr. Furbeck was born in Chicago eighty-four years ago, and came to Los Angeles in 1887, with his family, where he had since made his home. Practically all his life he was engaged in contracting and building, until retiring about ten years ago.

Mr. Furbeck was a devout member of the Baptist church since a young man and his congenial manner won him many friends. His wife preceded him in death six years ago, the surviving members of the family being a son, F. W. Furbeck, 215 South Brand boulevard, Glendale, and a daughter, Ollie F. La Coure, with whom he lived at 530 North Larchmont boulevard, Los Angeles.

Girl 'Paul Revere' Brings Fire Fighters to Rescue of Homes Endangered by Burning Brush Between La Canada and La Crescenta

When burning brush in the mountains between La Canada and La Crescenta back of Glendale last night endangered the many mansions, a girl "Paul Revere" brought fire-fighters to the rescue. At 11 o'clock last night the Glendale police department got word that the Earl and Strong canyons were a blazing furnace and that the hillside homes were in the path of destruction.

Violet Hill, 15-year-old Pasadena high school girl, mounted a pony shortly before the midnight hour and in the glitter of the flames she rode wildly from house to house, warning the sleeping residents of the danger and calling for volunteers to save the watersheds of the surrounding communities.

Hundreds flocked to the scene of the conflagration in motor cars, upon horses and by foot. Working valiantly until dawn, the brigade organized by this Pauline Revere finally subdued the fire after hundreds of acres had been burned over.

Both the Glendale and Los Angeles fire departments received frantic calls for aid during the night, but there is little equipment stationed here which is suitable to combat burning brush. The La Crescenta fire department did what it could, but only men and time were necessary to extinguish the flames.

A grass fire on the southwest corner of Lomita avenue and Brand boulevard called out the local department yesterday afternoon. It endangered the home of the Rev. George Eley. When the fireman returned from the run, they found ice cream awaiting them from the Roberts & Echols Drug Store, 102 East Broadway.

Shortly before noon today the department was called out to subdue a grass fire at the rear of the C. O. Pulliam home, 114 Arden avenue.

OFFER PLAN FOR CONSOLIDATION OF ALL RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A tentative plan for the consolidation of all the railroads of the United States into nineteen competing systems was announced by the interstate commerce commission today. The commission's plan follows closely the recommendations made by Professor William Z. Ripley of Harvard university, expert economist who studied the plan for the commission.

LEAD OF BOTH NEW YORK TEAMS CUT HALF OF GAME

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The lead of both New York teams in the major league pennant races was reduced yesterday by a half game. The Pirates won while the Giants were idle and cut McGraw's lead to three and one-half games. The Yanks lost while the Indians were idle and their lead slipped to one and one-half games. The Pirates have five to play and the Giants four. Both the Yankees and the Indians have four games remaining.

MEXICAN PETROLEUM SOFT ON EARLY TRADING TODAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Despite rumors of early recognition of Mexico, Mexican Petroleum was soft in early trading on the New York stock exchange today. Opening at 97¾, off ⅞, this stock fell to its week's low in the first few minutes, touching 97½. Other oils were firm. Royal Dutch, which this week made a new low for the year, opened up over a point. Asphalt and Pacific Oils were strong, the former holding up above 52 and the latter around 36. The rest of the list was inactive. A strong bear crowd was apparently at work on Baldwin locomotive. Sugars continued to ast badly, Amerian Sugar common making an early low below 59.

BRITISH NOTE IS EXPECTED BY DE VALERA TODAY

DUBLIN, Sept. 28.—Sinn Fein expected the British note today. Eamonn De Valera called a meeting of the Dail Eireann for tomorrow to consider Lloyd George's reply to his latest telegram. This was accepted here as indication that the Irish leader had been advised the communication from the British premier would be dispatched today. The Sinn Fein cabinet was first to consider the British reply to De Valera's last telegram, in which the republican president reiterated his contention that Irish plenipotentaries could only confer with Britain as representatives of a free state. The inner ring was to prepare recomendation for the Dail tomorrow.

FATE OF ARBUCKLE MAY BE DETERMINED BY TONIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The fate of Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle was expected to be determined before the end of today's preliminary hearing in his trial for the murder of Virginia Rappe. Whether the film comedian would face trial for murder or manslaughter or go free probably will be announced by Judge Lazarus before night, it was said. The state rested yesterday, but the hearing was to be resumed briefly today. It was believed Arbuckle would be held for trial. The declaration of Judge Lazarus that he did not like to dismiss any case without a showing of evidence supporting the charge which was made, was taken to mean he would order Arbuckle to be held. A subsequent announcement that he would not specify upon what charge he would order the comedian held was thought to mean he was considering reduction of the charge from first degree murder to manslaughter. The latter offense carries a maximum penalty of ten years in the penitentiary.

SITES FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL ARE DISCUSSED BY C. OF C. COMMITTEE AND DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION

Four Definite Locations Suggested; Those Having Any Suggestions Invited to Submit Them; People May be Given Privilege of Voting

POSSIBLE SITES for a new Glendale Union High School were discussed in a general way at the high school last night by the board of education and five representatives of a committee of nine appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to look into the matter at the request of the school board.

Four definite sites were mentioned:

1. Part of the Thom ranch, comprising twenty acres at Jackson and Doran streets.

2. The Lukin's property of seventeen acres on Broadway east of Verdugo road, in connection with twelve acres on the southwest corner of Verdugo road and Colorado street.

3. The Gray ranch consisting of twenty acres on San Fernando road near Kenilworth avenue and not far from Glendale park.

4. The present site with added ground making about twelve acres all together.

Property owners, who have other sites to suggest, are welcome to do so at the next meeting of the committee from the Chamber of Commerce. This will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the chamber headquarters. It was suggested at last night's session that those who have other sites to suggest, should come prepared to make a full explanation and, if possible, offer the school board an option on the property.

The high school board was represented by Dr. Harry V. Brown, chairman; Mrs. Blanche Gardner, I. D. Watson and Dan Campbell. Irving H. Oliver, high school business manager, was also present. The members of the chamber of commerce committee who were present were: Mrs. John Robert White, C. W. Young, H. V. Henry, Peter L. Ferry and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson.

Real Work to Do

A formal speech of welcome was made by Chairman Brown. He remarked that the Chamber of Commerce committee had grown out of the earnest desire of the high schobl board to meet the situation fairly without making any grevious mistake. He suggested that the new committee should review the situation thoroughly and then put the matter up to the people in a mass-meeting.

"I believe you will have some real work to do," remarked Dr. Brown to the members of the committee.

HEY MEN! MILLINERY CLASSES AT NIGHT SCHOOL WINS 'EM

Making Hats Is Most Popular Study for Women; Mere Male Neglecting Gym

Classes overflowing with ambitious scholars kept Principal A. L. Ferguson busy last night at the high school. Altogether 275 residents of Glendale have registered for the night school. This number is considered a very good record.

More than forty reported for typewriting practice. As there are accomodations for only thirtytwo, those who registered first were allowed to begin their keypounding last night and the other eight were placed on a waiting list.

The shorthand class consisted of twenty-four. Most of these are beginners, but stenographers may enter the class as the work advances. The Gregg system is being taught. The instructor in both typewriting and shorthand is Miss Harriet Switzer.

Preston A. Fullen had fourteen in his bookkeeping class and twelve in penmanship.

Millinery Class Largest

The largest class yet to assemble was for millinery for which fifty-eight reported. At first Miss Wilhelmina Hobush was somewhat distracted as to how to keep over half a hundred needles plying, ribbon matching, women busy on the latest styles in headgear. She discovered, however, that most of the women in this class had also registered for sewing and dressmaking. It was concluded to divide the millinery class into two sections, one to meet on Tuesday and the other on Thursday. If the attendance at these two classes decreases materially, they will be joined again and the promised sewing class commenced.

The class of twenty-three in the auto shop was also divided and half will meet Tuesday and half Thursday. Bert Rolfe is the instructor in this practical subject, while Norman N. Smith is in charge of the machine shop. Five of the twenty pupils reporting for this later subject were placed on a waiting list in order not to crowd the class.

Where Are Athletes?

Business men were not very well represented in the gym last night, but Howard L. Butterfield, assistant coach, is formulating plans to develope the attendance through various local clubs.

Tonight's schedule of classes will be the same as Monday, consisting of classes in business English, arithmetic, mechanical drawing and a young men's gym class.

"There is still room for a limited number more in mechanical drawing," announced Mr. Ferguson this morning. "Students may take either the elementary or advanced work. In the later case, they will be instructed in whatever branch of the subject they are interested whether it be mechanical drawing, machine designing, or architectural drawing. Our school is as well equipped for mechanical drawing as any school in Southern California. There is a big opportunity for those who are interested in this line of work."

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

William Allen White Story Is Picturized on Glendale's Screen

Masterful acting is the feature of Benjamin B. Hamptons' great photoplay of William Allen White's famous novel, "A Certain Rich Man," a pre-release which shows at the Glendale theatre today and tomorrow. A cast of seventeen principal actors make the beloved characters of the novel—characters familiar to almost all Americans—come to live on the screen in startling fashion.

The title role is played by Robert McKim, who does the best work of his career as "John Barclay." Clair Adams plays the heroine and opposite here is Carl Gantvoort, light opera star and matinee idol of the stage. Joseph J. Dowling is among the many other notable players whose ensemble acting has never been equaled, say those who have seen this picture.

The very latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Call a Cop," will give the fun-loving public another chance for a hundred big laughs while Screen Snaps and Pathe News make things more interesting.

Gloria Swanson In Perfect Love Story, Elinor Glyn, Author

Who could write a better love story than Elinor Glyn, the famous author of "Three Weeks" and other noted works of fiction? The answers to this question would be limited. And who could better enact a perfect love story than Gloria Swanson? That is why "The Great Moment," Miss Swansons' first Paramount starring vehicle, founded upon an original story by Elinor Glyn, which comes to the Palace Grand theatre tomorrow for a three-day run, is expected to be a film sensation. But there are yet other celebrities who had a hand in the production of the picture. Monte M. Katterjohn, wrote the scenario. Sam Wood directed the picture, Milton Sills is leading man and others in the cast are Alex B. Francis, F. R. Butler, Arthur Hull, Raymond Brathwayt, Clarence Gledart, Helen Dunbar and Julia Faye.

George Melford's production, "A Wise Fool," and "Dabbling in Art," close tonight.

REGULAR ELECTION BEING HELD AT INTERMEDIATE

Whole Flock of Candidates and Lots of Excitement Is Registered by Pupils

By IMA TRUANT

Politics are raging today at the intermediate school!

Amid great excitement the annual election of officers for the Intermediate Athletic association is in progress.

Strenuous efforts were made both before school and at noon to quench the epidemic of ward politics and local partizanship by "Dr." Clara Metcalf, school authority on justice, civics and political economy, but at last report the fever of the body politic was still running high.

Corruption does not enter this election. A folkmoot, or rather mass meeting, was held in the school assembly yesterday afternoon. Anyone endeavoring to influence the election by threatening, bribing or offering a reward for the election of a candidate was promised public disgrace.

Ballot Is Long One

So far the twelve judges of the election, chosen from Miss Metcalf's civic classes have detected no attempt to stuff the two ballot boxes, although they were obliged to discard two ballots this morning. Two voters had reached an agreement that they would vote similarly. The long ballot, containing nineteen names, proved too complicated for their memory. They were detected in the act of comparing their ballots.

The official polls are located in a courtyard in the rear of the school building. Here the dignified members of the election board who have been duly summoned, are seated around regular tables with four legs. Before them are spread the official registery of members of the athletic association. If a student has paid the dues of the organization, a ballot is issued. Members of the faculty are allowed to vote, too, and no discrimination is made on account of race, creed or previous condition of servitude.

Plenty of Excitement

Greatest excitement reigns over the election of a secretary. Five members from the B-7th class were nominated and indications this morning were that one of them would be elected. Tom Muff was given an ovation at yesterday's assembly and it was predicted that he would be a favorite at the polls.

Both a girl and a boy are contesting the honor of the presidency. It was expected that the ex-suffragettes would vote for Thelma Barker and the masculine element for Clarence Albaeck. There is some curiosity, also, to learn which of three girls will be selected as cheer leader. Floyd King is the only candidate for boys' yell leader.

Southern Glendale Municipal Matters Are Under Inquiry

Members of the city council and the city manager this morning made an inspection of municipal affairs in southern Glendale, looking into the water service, going over the Cerritos avenue school, discussing the widening of Los Feliz road. They expressed a desire to take care of all the needs suggested by the Southern Glendale Improvement association.

This afternoon the city officials are in Verdugo canyon looking into the possibilities of water development to supply the eastern part of the city. The Verdugo Woodlands sewer system which is now under construction also will be inspected.

"A Plain Nuisance"

That's the term a local newspaper editor applies to that old-home institution known as wash-day. He expresses the hope that it won't ever be revived.

Literary Digest tackles the subject, too, when it recommends to women that they keep pace with their husband's progress in his relations with the world-at-large.

No woman whose day's thoughts have revolved around the commonplaces of a week's washing can be a fit conversationalist at the evening meal.

Let us rid you of the wash-day nuisance.

OUTLINE PLANS FOR GLENDALE AVENUE ACHIEVEMENTS

within the city of Glendale amounts to 34,400 lineal feet including both sides of the street. This is practically all directly affected adversely as stated heretofore. The property owners maintain that such values are affected adversely to the extent of at least 25 per cent by the existence of the steam railroad thereon. On the other hand if the street is to be occupied by a railroad, they believe that they as property holders are entitled to a service therefrom that will be of direct value to the property fronting thereon and to the section of the city for which Glendale avenue is the natural traffic highway. Therefore, they believe that steps should be taken, legal measures if necessary, to compel the owners of this railroad to establish thereon a modern passenger service by the electrification of the road or by some other acceptable means or to remove the same entirely from the street for there is no incentive for those who have been in the past and will be in the future called upon to pay large amounts for the paving of Glendale avenue so that it might be kept in acceptable condition as one of the city's main traffic highways unless by so doing the property abutting thereon and imediately adjacent thereto may be enhanced in value by such improvement and in their opinion this cannot be done while the road is occupied as the road bed of a steam railroad handling nothing but freight.

Chance For Development

They believe that a splendid opportunity exists at the present time for the development of the Glendale branch of the Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railway company as another railroad passenger traffic artery extending from the industrial center of Los Angeles through the residence section traversed thereby within the city of Los Angeles and the city of Glendale. The development of such a traffic artery would in their opinion in no way compete with the service now rendered by the Pacific Electric inasmuch as it would traverse a section in Los Angeles that cannot be reached now from Glendale directly by the Pacific Electric. As matters now stant it is quite inconvenient for any person living in Glendale to reach the wholesale business and industrial section of the city of Los Angeles.

"The development of the Glendale branch of the Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad company as suggested would greatly enhance the development of the city of Glendale, and in their opinion is worthy of consideration by the present owners of that system.

C. of C. Directors Discuss Conditions In City's Schools

City school conditions were discussed at the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, following an appeal by Mrs. E. J. Morgan and Mrs. W. R. Blair, representing the Southern Glendale Improvement club for the construction of a new building on the site of the present Cerritos avenue school. These women declared the building was a fire trap, called it unsightly, and told of a bond issue to buy more ground which, they said, was diverted.

Charles B. Guthrie entered the discussion and, as a result, he was appointed advisory chairman on the civic committee of the chamber which will be present at the meeting of the Southern Glendale Improvement club at the branch library building, Los Feliz road and Brand boulevard, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

In discussing the school situation generally, Jesse E. Smith stated he was glad to learn of conditions from the mothers and expressed appreciation for Mrs. Morgan's and Mrs. Blair's talks. Roy L. Kent, another director and prominent as a builder, also discussed the school question, as did V. M. Hollister, another director. Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools, who also is a member of the chamber board, was not present.

BEEFSTEAK DINNER PLAN

As a beginning to Glendale Commandery No. 43, Knights Templar's, activities for the season, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell have invited members of the Commandery and their wives to a beefsteak dinner to be held at their home on North Highland avenue, October 8.

Glen Vista Tract Is Popular With Many Purchasers of Lots

With the scarcity of lots in the close in sections of the city, attention of buyers has taken a very appreciative turn toward the lots in the outlying sections. This has been very perceptible in the Glen Vista tract in the northwest section, where buying has been brisk since the contract for improvement of Highland avenue has been let.

The significance of this tendency on the part of buyers means a steady growth for the city of Glendale and is hailed on the part of the realty dealers with much optimism. Deeper significance is added to this phase of real estate transactions in that the majority of the purchasers plan to build as soon as possible on their holdings.

Among the prominent transactions which have taken place in Charles B. Guthrie's office, 103½ South Brand boulevard, is that of Miss Louisa Parkhurst of Boston, Mass., who purchased 120 feet on North Brand boulevard, between Mountain and Randolph streets.

Other Sales Reported

Other sales reported by Charles B. Guthrie are:

A house at the corner of Windsor road and Columbus avenue to A. S. Formoe, one of the popular letter carriers. Mr. Formoe recently disposed of his property and made a trip east. Upon his return he had to go to Long Beach in order to find a place to live while looking for a place here.

A lot on Howard street to Nellie S. Ireland.

A lot on Riverdale to L. B. Case, and another one to Zetta Roberts for homesites.

A house on Burchett to F. H. Miller.

A house at 213 East Arcacia to Paul R. Hall.

A house on Doran to Paul Lowry.

Glen Vista buyers of the week are R. G. Paxton, H. B. Rinearson, J. C. Padelford, Hilda Madsen, Annie Harding Yard, Frank Condon and L. W. Studer.

Dr. P. O. Lucas Says Conditions Require School Bonds Carry

"Our schools are so desperately in need of relief that I feel sure that the bond election on October 11 should be a success," declared Dr. P. O. Lucas, of the school board, yesterday afternoon."

"The voters may think that $260,000 is an enormous sum and that the school board has too pretentious plans. When the cost of real estate, building construction and equipment is considered, they will realize that this amount of money will do no more than take care of our present needs. The fact of the matter is that the funds to be raised through the sale of bonds will not go very far, all things considered.

"Fortunately, the previous campaign, held just before the proposed bond election last spring, brought the parents and citizens to a realization of the congested condition of the Glendale schools."

The fact that Glendale is breaking its own building record and population record, too, leads to the belief that the voters will realize the importance of the bonds for school purpose and vote them by a big majority, supporters of the bonds declare.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hamilton, 350 Ivy street, very pleasantly entertained at their home Monday night, Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Lusby and son, Donald, of 125 North Louise street, the event being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton's twenty-first wedding anniversary.

A charming blue and white color scheme prevailed throughout the decorations, a beautiful blue and white floral piece on the table adding much to the scheme.

A delicious dinner was served, after which the evening was spent in a social manner, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton receiving hearty wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton also entertained at their home last night Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downing of San Francisco, who are visiting friends in Glendale for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Downing arrived here yesterday and will spend a few days in viewing Glendale with the idea of making their home here permanently.

Manager Howe Will Get Best Acts From Bert Levey's Well Known Circuit

In pursuance of the policy of giving the public only the best in entertainment, Manager William A. Howe of the Glendale Theatre, today announces that his contract with the Meiklejohn & Dunn vaudeville booking agency has been cancelled, effective Saturday, October 8, and that beginning Tuesday, October 11, the Glendale Theatre will be a member of the Bert Levy circuit which imports its acts.

During the last few weeks there have been several "repeat" numbers on the vaudeville bill and last night's performance was far from par, it being evident that there is a dearth of good talent in the local field. The new arrangement with the biggest circuit west of Chicago, will bring to Glendale new faces, new novelties and better talent every Tuesday and Saturday.

Mr. Howe returned from San Francisco yesterday where he personally interviewed Mr. Levey and learned of his plans for routing his circuit into southern California, playing Santa Ana, San Bernardino and other cities where family vaudeville is appreciated.

Obtains Novel Acts

The Bert Levey circuit furnishes many acts seen on the Orpheum as the latter is in direct competition with the Pantages and Loew circuits. Besides maintaining offices in London, New York, Chicago, Seattle and San Francisco it will open a booking agency in Los Angeles the first of the month.

Bert Levey is the only American vaudeville magnate sending talent to Australia and he operates in conjunction with the Gus Sun service in the east. Professional people will realize what this means and the improved shows will soon be apparent to the layman.

Meeting With Punch Held by Members of City Teachers' Club

Nearly every teacher in the Glendale grammar school system hied to the Intermediate school yesterday after school in spite of the heat.

There was a reason.

A keg of home-brew was on tap—pardon, an overflowing bowl of home-made ice cold, pure fruit punch was being served by the refreshment committee of the Glendale City Teachers' association.

Of course, some business was discussed but thoughts ran laargely to weather. Fans were used extensively and handkerchief and face powder was spread upon fevered brows secretly. The heaving sound coming from the direction of the Intermediate school yesterday was not the pent up enthusiasm of the pedagogues bursting forth but rather the schoolmarms panting for breath.

Mrs. Ettarae Kirk Kent, teacher of music at the Central school, sang two solos, one of which was all about "Matilda." It was quite gossipy. Miss Christine Iverson, president of the Los Angeles City Teachers' club, read her report of the Pan-Pacific Congress of Education last August in Honolulu. She was unable to get her audience interested in a trip to the mid-Pacific during this present warm spell.

"Yes, three male teachers actually came," stated Miss Cary M. Noble, principal of the Intermediate school and president of the local association. "No, I wouldn't dare to mention their names because they would be overcome with bashfulness and refuse to come again. You can say that we are out after the men."

The meeting closed—with more punch.

Belt Bus Line In Glendale Proposed by Chas. B. Guthrie

A belt bus line for Glendale was suggested by Charles B. Guthrie, local realty operator, in a brief talk to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. Extension of electric railways is out of the question, he opined, and foresees motor transportation as the only answer for the development of outlying district.

Peddlers of literature, insulting tramps and insistent solicitors were scored by Mr. Guthrie in the course of his talk. He told of his wife being insulted by one of the unwelcome visitors who come with a growing city.

Regarding the opening of Patterson avenue to San Fernando Road, Mr. Guthrie showed the advantages of having a direct route into the city. He told of Los Angeles' efforts to divert traffic through Lankershim and Hollywood and revealed the fact that Glendale goes unmentioned in the tourists' "Blue Book."

"I would like to see this town named as one of southern California's leading cities—not an adjunct of Los Angeles," he concluded.

GRIFFITH PARK FOR BIG HOTEL SITE IS PROPOSED

Katharine P. Williamson, In Interview, Gives Several Interesting Thoughts

In the quest for a park site, Miss Katherine P. Williamson, 345 Cerritos avenue, one of the most loyal to Glendale, has combined the story of "The Blue Flower," and added the suggestion that Griffith park be chosen. In an interview with Miss Williamson, she was very enthusiastic over the idea, and had the following to say:

"Do you remember the story of the search for 'The Blue Flower?' The story of a man in quest of happiness; a man that climbed mountain peaks, traveled sandy wastes, and followed winding streams and trackless forests, vainly seeking 'The Blue Flower?' When old he returned to his childhood home, too worn and weary to pursue his heart's desire.

"After years of toil and sadness, a homeless wanderer in many lands, what was his joy and surprise to find at the end of his journey of Life, that 'The Blue Flower' was growing by his own doorstep!

Proposed as Hotel Site

"Glendale is searching for a place of happiness,—a site for a park. Why not use the park at the door of the city—Griffith park?

"The daily papers voice the demand for a large hotel at Glendale and Hollywood also sees the need in her crowded district of more hotels. Why not combine the interests of the neighboring cities and use Griffith park as the motive for location? What more beautiful site than the one overlooking the San Fernando valley? It has every advantage—in walking distance to Hollywood or Glendale and is near the Los Feliz boulevard, the great highway from Pasadena to the sea.

"The Southern Pacific Railway is available for freight and passenger traffic. The drainage is ideal—the Los Angeles river, the natural line for the great drainage system necessary for the development of this section of San Fernando valley.

"Griffith park is Los Angeles' largest park and has every possibility for an inland recreation center. Did you ever hike to the peak of Hollywood mountains? If not able to walk—a lost art—I beg of you to motor over this famous winding way. The view will be ample reward. The scenery compares favorably with the view from the Huntington and Raymond hotels at Pasadena, which attracts and holds the guests from all parts of the world.

Called Enchanted Spot

"The Green hotel of Pasadena has Central park for a front door yard, attractive, but many private estates in California are larger, and not to be compared with Griffith park under discussion.

"Griffith park for out-door life is an enchanted spot—protected from the fogs of the sea and fanned by the breezes of this wide valley. Two of the many features possible in this delightful area are a swimming pool and open-air theatre.

"With the Los Angeles river flowing underground at all times, it is a 'coward' as it hides under the bed most of the year, the old river bed could easily be made into a bridle path. Do you enjoy dreaming dreams? Let us vision an early canter some bright morning in the valley of the happy homes and the blooming orchards—perhaps to join a merry party whose destination in Arroyo Seco as they wind their way to the lake at Devil's Gate where the Glendale friends leave them to return via Flintroad Road for breakfast at home in Glendale.

"Griffith park, an open field by day for the public, with guarded sections open at night for the meeting of a joyous throng, would mean happiness for all.

"Young people of Glendale, why not pluck the Blue Flower at home?"

P. A. Pollock Gets Plenty of Business Before Garage Opens

"Already, without any effort on my part, enough business has come in here before we are even ready to open up to keep myself and two helpers busy for five weeks," stated P. A. Pollock, owner of the new Sunset Motor Works, at Broadway and Pacific, yesterday afternoon.

On account of delay in receiving a shipment of machinery from his former garage at Tonopah, Nev., Mr. Pollock will not be able to begin active work until next week. Meanwhile, he is busily putting his large new building in order.

Mr. Pollock feels very much encouraged about business conditions in this vicinity. e has had fifteen years' experience with the "innards" of balky autos.

The Pollock garage was recently dedicated with an old-fashioned dance. City officials were present and a good time was had by all." Yes, Mr. Pollock says that "business is good in Glendale." He says it's the brightest spot in the white spot—and he's happy he has invested heavily here.

In Southern California

"American-humor has petered out and must be replenished or it will be choked by vulgarity," thus quoth Dr. David P. Barrows, president of the University of California, at the opening of the state convention of county and city superintendents of schools at the Hotel Del Coronado, Monday night. He continued:

"We need music—good music. Nowadays all college music is Africanized and in a way that would not be recognized in Africa itself. It is a peculiar home product.

"Music is fundamental to all arts and must be cultivated, developed and brought to the proper plane."

Mother Causes His Arrest

Joseph Moore, motion picture actor and brother of Owen, Tom and Matt Moore, is in jail in Los Angeles today on charges of drunkenness preferred by his mother. Mocre was said to have made unsuccessful experiments with internal applications of toilet water and vanilla extract. The young man admitted at the jail that he had been intoxicated for a week.

"A week, nothing!" asserted Mrs. Moore with emphasis. "Eight years is more like it."

Moore eloped in 1917 with Grace Cunard, film star. He now lives with his mother in Hollywood, however.

George Rumsey, Read This!

Wanted—George Rumsey. He is not wanted by the police, but by a man who wants to give him a half interest in a gold mine.

"Rumsey and I staked out a claim in Arizona thirty years ago," said E. R. Gates. "It didn't 'pan' at all, and we both forgot all about it. Now, however, it's been developed into a producer and a rich one. I'm trying to find George to give him his half."

University Fee Probed

Following complaints that hundreds of resident students have been either unable to enter the state university or have been forced to drop out without finishing their studies because of a new policy adopted by the board of regents requiring all students to pay "entrance fees," the State Board of Control announced late today that it has started an investigation to determine whether the regents acted legally in establishing the entrance charges.

Jews in Christian Church

The privilege of worshiping in the Wilshire Boulevard Christian church, Los Angeles, has been unanimously extended by the Rev. Dr. M. Howard Fagan and his congregation to the members of the Jewish congregation, Temple Emanu-Eel, now temporarily worshiping in the Masonic Temple, Western avenue and Third street. The congregation of Emanu-El will occupy the Christian church during six of eight services during the season of the Jewish New Year and the Day of Atonement, during the early part of October.

Revenue Men Around

Have you paid your income tax yet?

If you haven't, watch out, for the revenue man is after you. An income tax drive will be commenced October 3 by the Department of Internal Revenue. J. M. Rogers, superintendent of the collector's office, arrived in Los Angeles from San Francisco to inaugurate a vigorous prosecution of those who have failed to make the proper returns.

La Canada Man Dies

Charles L. Cornwall, for thirty-eight years a widely-known resident of the La Canada valley, five miles northwest of here, was found dead in his barn yesterday morning by his widow. Cornwall, who was 77, had previously suffered several strokes of apoplexy. He was a contractor and builder.

County Business Grows

Los Angeles county is a corporation doing a business of $43,425,427.36 during the last fiscal year, according to a report by County Auditor H. A. Payne to the Board of Supervisors Monday. The tremendous growth of business of the county was shown by the auditor's report. In the preceding year the amount of money handled by the county totaled $28,150,021.06. This year's business of the county showed an increase of fifteen millions of dollars over the business of the county a year ago.

Grandmother in Jail

Mrs. Ora Cadwallader is over 70 years old. She has white hair and spectacles which she pushes up amidst her thin locks. She is a grandmother. She was before United States Judge Bledsoe Monday charged with selling liquor at her store in Wilmington. The police said she was ruining the morals of the harbor longshoremen. She pleaded guilty and the law must take its course. She was sentenced to four months in jail.

Mary Miles Minter Caught

The name of Mary Miles Minter, motion picture actress, was placed on the Los Angeles police blotter four times on Monday for violating the speed laws. Two tags were for driving too fast in the city and two for failure to have an operator's license in her possession when in the driver's seat.

Added to the list of safety devices for aviators is one which automatically keeps the airplane's windshield free from moisture.

SITES FOR PROPOSED NEW HIGH SCHOOL ARE DISCUSSED

About 20 Acres Are Needed for Institution, Is Belief of Board of Education

"There is no disposition on the part of the board to shirk our responsibilities because the board is quite willing to go ahead and do its duty. However, it wants the advice and sanction of the citizens.' '

A desire on the part of the board to actually abide by any decision made by the new committee was expressed by the chairman.

"I am sure that you are welcome to any information that the board may have," declared Dr. Brown, "and yet we don't want to load you down with any preconceived ideas.

The boards' idea is that the question at issue now is purely on the securing of a site for a high school. In view of past experiences in presenting questions to the people, the board wants to be absolutely sure that we have gone into every feature of the situation just as we would want a business man to go into the matter so that the people can have a choice."

Twenty Acres Desired

The question as to how large a site the school board needed was raised by Mrs. White.

"We are convinced that nothing less than twenty acres should be considered," replied Dr. Brown.

Mrs. Hutchinson was of the opinion that as soon as it became known that the city was in the market for a certain new high school site property values near it would be boosted immediatelq. She suggested the securing of an option by six or eight persons, secretly and without publicity.

Dan Campbell admitted that legal condemnation of property for a site would be a tedious and expensive process. The board did not consider this phase of the problem.

"If we don't secure a site soon," said Dr. Brown, "the sites now available probably will be subdivided and then the proposition will be even worse."

Couldn't Close Street

Use of the present site was discussed briefly.

"The citizens of this town would not consent to closing Louise street," stated Mrs. Hutchinson.

"The street never could be closed," admitted Mr. Cambpell.

"There are plenty of cities where the city has several blocks of property which are closed,' 'suggested Dr. Brown.

Mrs. Hutchinson called attention to the fact that by closing Louise street it would be necessary for traffic to go east to Kenwood street which was not cut through south of Colorado and that this arrangement would be very inconvenient for a growing city like Glendale.

"It has been my feeling that the question of the new site ought to be put on the ballot and the people given the right to vote on it. The board wants to be fair with the people whatever it does," commented the chairman.

Favors One Site

Mr. Campbell immediately inquired if it would not be perfectly proper to put the whole thing up to the voters for settlement. Mr. Ferry stated he was definitely in favor of concentrating on one site before letting the matter come to an issue.

"If you put up three or four sites to be voted on, I don't believe you will get a fair decision," said Mr. Ferry. "Most people will be a little selfish and decide on the site nearest their home. I am of the opinion that if the committee could recommend one good site, it would be much better."

"We have got to make up our minds that we can't get a site as centrally located as the present location," commented Mr. Campbell.

Inquiry was made by Mr. Ferry as to whether Glendale was large enough to support two complete high schools. Mr. Campbell admitted the board had given some thought to putting up one unit of a high school for juniors and seniors alone.

Mrs. Hutchinson called attention to the extra expense for supervision which a divided high school would involve. Dr. Brown suggested that this expense would be no greater than that born by the grammar schcool system. He added that it was a question as to whether the school district had the bonding capacity at the present time to erect a complete new high school. What should be done with the present high school was not gone into, although Dr. Brown declared it might be turned over to the grammar school system.

MRS. H. BENDER SURPRISED

Mrs. H. J. Bender of 407 Cameron Place had the unexpected pleasure last night of entertaining her brother, E. L. Hougham of Bakersfield, at dinner. Mr. Hougham is mayor of Bakersfield and is attending the convention of the League of Southern California Municipalities at Santa Monica.

One-half of the world is glad that the other half doesn't know how it lives.

Hart Realty Company Takes Larger Offices

Indicative of the steady growth of Glendale and increasing activity in real estate transactions the Hart Realty company, which for the past year has been located at 120 North Brand boulevard, will move about October 1 to new quarters at 113 East Broadway, just east of the new Glendale State bank. This change of location was made necessary by the increase in realty business, and the new office, it is declared, will be one of the largest and best equipped in Glendale.

The Hart Realty company will specialize in Glendale properties and exchanges, and will also handle insurance and business opportunities. Charles Kausen, who is at present associated with the firm, will also be connected with it at the new location.

LOCAL TEAM TAKES FIRST BATTLE OF FOOTBALL YEAR

Glendale High Makes Really Good Showing In Game With Burbank Squad

By HOWARD M. McGILLIS

The Glendale high school football team made a creditable showing in their initial appearance of the year by walloping the Burbank high pigskinners yesterday afternoon by the score of three touchdowns to a "big fat goose egg," as was expressed by John Judd, Glendale's diminutive sport enthusiast. The fracas took place on the local field, and was attended by a small crowd of followers of both teams.

Although the game was only a practice affair, the showing of the black and red warriors was productive of broad smiles of satisfaction on the countenances of Head Coach, Normal C. Hayhurst and his assistant, Howard Butterfield. There is still much room left for improvement in the various departments of the team play, however, although yesterday's exhibition was far from discouraging, as almost all of the players were green and inexperienced.

Locals Are Superior

From the first blast of the referee's whistle until the end of the last quarter the Glendale huskies displayed that they were the superior aggregation, having the oval in their possession most of the time. The play took place practically throughout the entire four periods in Burbank's territory, the visitors never getting within striking distance of their opponents' goal line.

Among Glendale's outstanding stars were Atwood Dutcher, veteran tackle from last year's eleven, and Chester "Gump" Green and Ronald West, who are the backfield "finds" of the season. Green, at quarterback, handled the squad in an almost flawless manner and further showed his ability as a ball advancer by tearing through the whole Burbank team for a fifty-yard run to a touchdown. West, a green Sophomore who is donning the moleskins this season for the first time, showed up well at one of the halves, breaking through the line for repeated gains. Weighing close to 170 pounds, he promises to develop into one of the most dangerous line plungers in the history of the institution.

How They Started It

The game was conducted by Harry Glazier, referee, and Carlton "Ax" West, umpire, both former Glendale high school stars. Following is the line-ups of the squads, as they began the game:

Burbank—	Position	Glendale—
H. Olgar	L.E.R.	Goss
Holman	L.T.R.	Dutcher
Thompson	L.G.R.	Bartow

'Bicycle Bill' Says Nearly Every School Student Rides Wheel

"Is the bicycle being supplemented by the flivver? Say just happen around here some afternoon about the time school is out, and you'll think not. You'll think every school in the state is represented, and every youngster rides a bicycle!"

And William A. Pfeifer of 141 South Brand boulevard, wiped his forehead and continued work on the wheel for some kiddie to have as soon as school is out. Mr. Pfeifer is known to hundreds of school children as "Bill," and Bill is kept busy.

Mr. Pfeifer stages bicycle races every year and the city council closes a street for him to use as a track. He is an expert at proving bicycles are better than automobiles—for some things—and his steadily increasing business proves conclusively, so he says, that bikers are coming back strong and that the public is realizing that bicycle riding is one of the best exercises known, to say nothing of being a time saver for boys and old boys, girls and older girls.

Watching Scoreboard

Sidetracking a train load of "ifs" the American league pennant race would not be so "intrikit."

With the Indians heading into Chicago and the Yanks charging on Philadelphia, baseball dopers are trying to learn just how sincere the White Sox and the "Pathetics" are in the desire to win the series with the two contenders.

When the Cleveland club played in Philadelphia at the start of this last eastern trip the Athletics were charged with not being very enemy-like toward the world's champions.

There was no talk of throwing games, of course, but it was agreed that Connie Mack picked a very unusual time to try out a flock of rookie pitchers that had just been shipped in from the bushes.

Hasty, Rommell and Moore are the three rather tough hurlers for the New Yorkers to beat, "if the A's could work up some of their potential strength behind them.

"If" Kid Gleason is overly anxious to knock the Indians out of the pennant race he could send Red Faber in for two games and work Dick Kerr in one. Three exceedingly tough games, it is pointed out, because Faber and Kerr are soft for no team, although the dinky southpaw has never been a great jinx to the Indians.

Yesterday's hero—George Sisler hit a homer with one on in the first inning and the Browns beat the Browns, 2 to 0.

Roush's homer with two on in the second inning clinched the game, the Reds beating the Cubs, 8 to 3.

The WORLD OVER

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The reason that the Pacific coast has produced no golf players of championship caliber is because of the inferiority of the links on the rim of the continent. This is the opinion of Roger Lapham, former president of the California Golf association.

Lapham is an enthusiastic and intelligent advocate of golf, has played the game for a matter of a quarter of a century and followed his ball over most of the best links of the east and middle west as well as those of the far west.

"Football, baseball, tennis and track athletics have reached a high stage of development out here and we are able to more than hold our own in these lines of sport. 'It is only in golf that we never yet have produced a champion," said Lapham. "Of course, we did not get started as soon as the east, but our main fault lies in the fact that we are all prone to think that our particular club links is the best in the country. This is the wrong attitude, and until we get over this idea and strive to better the construction of our courses, we are not going to get into the championship class. I am not unmindful of the fact that we have a number of excellent players on the coast, but the fact remains that they do not measure up to the Ouimet, or "Chick" Evans caliber. This is proven by reason of the fact that coast names do not appear on the long list of national champions for each year. Our western golfers were eliminated from this year's contest comparatively early in the tournament notwithstanding the fact that we had a greater representation than ever before."

Eastern links are constructed with a view to make the golfer play every stroke correctly, as it should be played, according to Lapham. Any deviation from this gets the player into difficulties. It is a difficult matter to please every player. What may suit the player with a high handicap may not be acceptable to the scratch player. Concessions must be made to both.

There is no doubt that many students of coast golf will agree in what Lapham has to say in the matter. This fact is demonstrated more or less by reason of the fact that the architecture of many coast links is being changed and improved and the best course builders are being employed to lay out the links. Golfers who have played over the more difficult courses approximating the architecture Lapham has in mind have found that when they returned to play over their own links they have found they traveled the distance in a reduced number of strokes, which is the best possible evidence of the truth of Lapham's contention.

One of the biggest projects under consideration is that of the Olympic club of San Francisco which has in view the feasibility of a course of over forty holes on a property which it has under option. This club only recently has gone into golf and an enthusiastic golf clientele quickly has sprung up which bids fair to make this club, in time, a recognized patron of the great Scotch game.

HEARD FROM HOME? MAYBE LETTER IS IN THIS PILE

Total of 19,560 Misdirected Pieces of Mail at Local Office During August

A total of 19,560 misdirected letters were received at the Glendale branch postoffice during the month of August, or an average of over 630 a day. In addition to this number there were over 1000 received and delivered which were addressed incorrectly, but which found delivery, owing to the distributers having a personal knowledge of the addresses.

Yesterday afternoon the pile of misdirected letters covered the top of the large safe, and there were three additional large packages. The distributors are patient and exerting every effort to get the tangled addresses straightened out, but it requires a great deal of time and the ability to decipher.

A bulletin recently received by the Glendale branch pstoffice shows the enormous amount of mail that is misdirected and clearly emphasizes the necessity of using a little painstaking care in addressing envelopes.

In the New York postoffice 350,000 pieces of misdirected mail are handled daily, and at Grand Rapids, Michigan, 5000 misdirected letters are handled every twenty-four hours, while about in the same length of time about 20,000 pieces of mail are received without street addresses.

Do You Make Them?

Some of the more common mistakes observed locally in addressing mail are noted as follows:

1. Addresses are written very hastily and illegibly, often in lead pencil; pencil addresses become obliterated in the course of handling.

2. Abbreviations in the names of firms, postoffices, and states, are confusing and invite trouble for the distributors—for instance there is a similarity in the abbreviation of "Pa." for Pennsylvania, "La." for Louisiana, and "Ia." for Iowa; also "Cal." for California, and "Col." for Colorado. Unless the letters of the abbreviations are written very plainly, there is always the danger of a mistake in distributing the letter.

Street addresses are often omitted on city mail, which often causes a delay in the delivery, postal officials point out.

Transfers of Service

The following requests for light and service installation of meters are on file at the city hall:

I. M. Aldridge, 343 Ivy street, to 356 West Ivy street; F. S. Morgan, 280 South Boynton street, to 124 East Acacia street; Fred Reed, 518 North Orange street, to 204 West Colorado street; E. H. DISH WASHING IS PLEASURE

The sport of bathing dishes will soon be a thing of the past in the high school cafeteria. The board of education last night decided to purchase an up-to-date, scientific dishwasher. There is much rejoicing this morning on the part of Miss Ellen Hanson, manager of the school feedery and her four culinary gymnasts.

No woman can afford to let her husband know what she really thinks of him.

Carlton T. West Wades Through Six Feet of Snow, Then Swelters In 120 Degrees In Shade and, Folks, It Happened to Him In Same Day!

"From six feet of snow to 120 degrees in the shade," is the odd experience reported by Carlton T. West, who returned to Glendale last Sunday from Big Creek, California, where he has spent the past six months surveying for the Southern California Gas company. And both of these extremes in temperature were "enjoyed," in one day, acsording to West, who stated his twelve hours' journey took him from a point in the high Sierras, several thousand feet above the sea, to Fresno, "the hottest place in the state."

Coming at such a warm part of the year, West's story sounds more impossible than if it had been last week. Leaving the big surveying camp at daylight Saturday morning West started on the downward mountain road on his motorcycle, which he had purchased especially for the occasion. He had only traveled a few miles, however, when he was caught in a blinding snow storm. The roads soon became impassable for the motor bike and West was compelled to cover the next five miles with snow shoes as his only aid. By 2 o'clock he was in Fresno and in a few minutes was on his way to Glendale.

Mr. West, who was a student last year at the Southern Branch of University of California, is staying at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. West of 446 West Elk avenue. He is planning to remain in this city until next week, when he will return to Big Creek to work until the first of next year. He expects to resume his studies at the university in February.

S. C. Packer Gets Another Carload of Studebakers, Light 6

They arrived last evening. Did you hear 'em coming down Brand boulevard?

The third contingent of Studebakers, the Light Six of the species, invaded Glendale last evening and took up temporary abode with the Packer Auto company, 245 South Brand boulevard. It is expected that the invaders will be adopted shortly by Glendale citizenry and make their homes here permanently.

The carload of the Studebaker Light Sixes is the third carload that has been received within the past four days by the Packer Automobile company, a part of the first two carloads being the "Special Six."

Judging from past sales it is not expected that this shipment of Studebakers will last long, and in commenting on the prospects S. C. Packer of the Packer Automobile company said:

"Before the arrival of these cars we had to beg the distributors to send us cars. The $200 cut in the price of Studebakers since the eighth of the month has been a big selling feature for these cars, and this combined with the many other commendable features of the Studebaker, makes it a car that is very popular in Glendale."

Are Schools Crowded? Here's Some Evidence; These Boys Know It!

Young Eldon Soper and John Vandiver aren't exactly either lost sheep or black sheep—but they are the "goats" of a crowded school system. Whenever any of the pupils at the Pacific avenue school are absent, they get seats. Otherwise they share the office of the principal, Miss Fannie O. Stone, for study purposes. They both agree that it is mighty hard to get into any mischief with the reigning authority of the school right there.

Moreover, they have to sit on front seats when they go to the sixth grade to recite. And all because they returned to Glendale two weeks after school opened. They are very much in favor of the coming bond election.

The schools of Glendale are crowded; the pupils know that—and admit it. The teachers claim that everything possible is being done to care for the pupils—they admit that. And with new families coming to Glendale to reside every day, the school question is becoming the big problem—everyone admits that. So the $260,000 bond issue is the big issue, of course.

SEEKS PERMIT TO OPERATE

The Glendale Rapid Transit company has an application filed with the state railroad commission for a permit to operate a motor truck express and baggage service between Glendale and Los Angeles.

Notice of Street Work

Public notice is hereby given that the Council of the City of Glendale, on the 22nd day of September, 1921, did at its meeting on said day, adopt a Resolution of Intention, No. 1239, to order the following improvement to be made, to-wit:

Fred V. Shuck Has No Mercy; Takes Last Penny; 8750 of Them

Would Fred V. Shuck take the last penny from a starving widow? You bet he would! Yesterday he did it.

Of course, the "widow's" husband might not like the reflection upon the family larder. But for days, nay weeks and months, his wife's aesthetic soul has been starving, yea literaly starving, insatiatiable appetite for culture and the craving of her inner soul for harmony—such as might not be furnished by the Lankershim village jazz band.

Recently the fame of the Barnes-Shuck Music company, 211 North Brand boulevard, reached her domicile. In great eagerness she hurried hither for a Pathe phonograph.

When she left Glendale Mr. Shuck was still busy counting pennies. She had left a bagful of them behind, the accumulation of many a day. There were 8750 of them.

Third: That a Vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed in sewer right of way east of Brand Boulevard and in Wilson Avenue from a point in the centerline of Wilson Avenue one hundred forty-seven and sixty hundredths (147.60) feet west of the west line of Maryland Avenue on a line parallel to said Maryland Avenue to a point forty-six (46) feet north of the north line of Broadway, together with manholes, flush tank and appurtenances all as shown on the plans and profiles of said sewer, designated as Plan No. 422.

Fourth: That a Vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed in the first alley south of Broadway and in Maryland Avenue from a point in the center line of Maryland Avenue one hundred four and five-tenths (104.5) feet south of the south line of Broadway on a line parallel to the north line of said alley to a point sixteen and one one-hundredth (16.01) feet east of the east line of Brand Boulevard, together with manholes, flush tank, and appurtenances, all as shown on the plans and profiles of said sewer, designated as plan No. 422.

Fifth: That a vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed in the first alley east of Brand Boulevard and the first alley south of Broadway from a point in a line parallel to and four and fifty hundredths (4.50) feet south of the north line of the last mentioned alley which point is one hundred fourteen and five-tenths (114.5) feet east of the east line of Brand Boulevard parallel to said easterly line, to a point one hundred forty-three (143) feet southerly therefrom together with all manholes, flush tank and appurtenances all as shown on plans and profiles of said sewer, designated as plan No. 422.

Sixth: That a Vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed in the first alley east of Brand Boulevard and in Harvard Street and Colorado Street from a point in the north line of Harvard Street one hundred twenty-three (123) feet west of the west line of Maryland Avenue to a point ten (10) feet south of the north line of Colorado Street together with all manholes, lampholes, septic tank, cesspools and appurtenances all as shown on plans and profiles of said sewer designated as Plan No. 422.

Seventh: That a Vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed in the first alley west of Brand Boulevard from a point ten (10) feet south of the north line of Colorado Street to a point one thousand eight hundred and ninety (1890) feet north of the north line of Colorado Street and across all intersections of streets and alleys or portions thereof along the line of said sewer together with manholes, flush tank, lamphole, septic tanks, cesspools and appurtenances all as shown on plans and profiles designated as Plan No. 422.

Eighth: That a Vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed in sewer right of way east of Brand Boulevard along a line parallel to the west line of Maryland Avenue from a point in the north line of Harvard Street one nundred twenty-three (123) feet west of the west line of Maryland Avenue to a point two hundred forty (240) feet northerly therefrom together with all manholes, flush tanks, and appurtenances, all as shown on plans and profiles of said sewer designated as Plan No. 422.

Ninth: That a Vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed along the center line of Harvard Street from its intersection with the center line of Maryland Avenue produced southerly to a point one hundred forty-four and eighty-three hundredths (144.83) feet westerly therefrom together with manholes, septic tank, cesspools and appurtenances, all as shown on plans and profile of said sewer, designated as Plan No. 422.

Tenth: That a Vitrified pipe sanitary sewer be constructed along the centerline of Broadway from a point in the centerline produced northerly of that portion of the first alley west of Brand Boulevard which lies south of Broadway to a point one hundred thirty-five (135) feet westerly therefrom together with manhole, lamphole and appurtenances all as shown on plans and profiles of said sewer designated as Plan No. 422.

MAKE NEW EFFORTS FOR COMPLETION OF LOOP LINE

tain the railroad extension as originally planned or in lieu thereof transportation service that will adequately serve that section.

"The growth of Glendale during the past three years has been very rapid. In fact, during the past ten years the increase in population has been 93 per cent as set forth by U. S. census. During this period there have been built an average of one hundred new dwellings per month, which growth is continuing. The near-in property has been built up quite closely and it has been necessary to develop the outlying districts in order to provide for continued growth. That makes it absolutely necessary that these sections have transportation service as a large portion of the residents of Glendale travel back and forth daily between the business center of Los Angeles and their homes.

Committee Is Ready

The committee is now ready to take this matter up vigorously and work out some satisfactory solution of it. If it is the desire of the Pacific Electric to renew the original proposition, the committee will endeavor to obtain the right of way as agreed or as modified as present conditions may require. In discussing this matter with yourself and others lately, it would seem that the Pacific Electric is not in a position at this time to renew the original offer. If this is the present situation, the committee feels that it should co-operate with the Pacific Electric in obtaining the railroad service sought for this section by the establishment of a bus line that would connect with the east terminal on east Broadway and the main line in the vicinity of Brand boulevard and Cypress street, and possibly extend through the western section of the city as well, so as to provide transportation for that large district there that is similarly situated and is now handicapped for lack of convenient railroad transportation. In fact the committee feels that it owes an obligation to these districts to secure this desired service.

"Failing in this, the committee feels that it will be necessary to take up the matter independently of the Pacific Electric and provide service by bus line direct to the business center of Los Angeles. This the committee feels, however, is not the better plan. They desire to work with the Pacific Electric Railway company but feel that the matter should be taken up at once and a decision reached as to whether or not the Pacific Electric can give these districts the railroad service that is needed.

Action Is Sought

"We would sincerely urge you to lay this matter before the proper Pacific Electric authorities at your earliest convenience and obtain from them their early decision as to whether the railroad extension would be further considered and in the event that that proposition cannot be considered at this time, to obtain their decision in regard to the proposition to establish bus lines as suggested.

"Several have proposed that an independent local company be organized to establish and operate busses in the districts outlined here in that would carry the traffic directly to the business center of Los Angeles. This may be necessary as a last resort, but in our opinion the extension of Pacific Electric service as suggested above is preferable and I know it is the desire of the committee and the Chamber of Commerce to work the matter out on those lines if possible."

Angelus Park Lots Are Being Offered for Immediate Sale

The announcement made by Rigali & Veselich, 706 Merchant National Bank building, Los Angeles, that two tiers of lots in Angelus park located between the new Glendale boulevard and the Los Feliz boulevard, will be placed on immediate sale will come as welcome news to many who have been watching Glendale grow and who have been anxious for a considerable length of time to get possession of real estate in this section of Glendale.

The lots are well located, being in the heart of the subdivision. The owners had planned not to place this section on sale as yet, but so insistent has been the demand that it has been finally decided to offer the entire two tiers of lots to the public.

The offer being made public means that everyone will share equally in the opportunity to purchase and also means the first come will be first served. Both those in charge of the Los Angeles office and the tract office of Angelus park on the corner of Brand boulevard and Seneca avenue, are very confident that the entire tract will be disposed of within the next few days.

Near to P. E. Carline

One of the features of the tract that will make it particularly attractive to Glendale purchasers is its location, being near the Pacific Electric line, and in a section that is fast developing. This favorable location, together with the many insistent demands that have been made for the lots to be placed on sale, give reason to believe that very few, if any, of the lots will be left unsold by the end of the week.

Another attractive feature of this tract, too, is the fact that practically every lot buyer, it is reported, has purchased his lot not for speculation, but with the intention to build immediately.

HOMES SEIZED BY PIRATES

Moro pirates arrived on the coast of Davoa, Minoanao, Philippine Islands, in 1823, driving the native inhabitants, the Bagobos, into the hills.

Coker & Taylor Has Stove Demonstration of Unusual Interest

The weather during the past few days seems to have no effect on the work of O. J. Merrill, who is demonstrating the popular Direct Action gas stoves at Coker & Taylor, 209 South Brand boulevard. Several stoves were sold yesterday and many demonstrations are being made at the store today.

Much interest is being shown in the Lorain heat control system, a special feature of the stove which has been found very convenient and efficient for canning fruit. The fruit is placed in glass jars and placed in the oven after which the guage is set for the proper degree of heat. The specially-designed oven makes it possible to maintain the desired degree of heat for any length of time without further attention, and this feature has proved a very great time saver, it is claimed.

Coker & Taylor recently moved into their new building on South Brand and it is one of the most modern and perfectly equipped in the city, they point out. One of the features of the building is a large basement, cement lined, for storage purposes.

Glendale State Bank Is Highly Praised by Former U. S. Banker

Archie Anderson of Los Angeles, formerly cashier of the Federal Reserve bank of Kansas City, was a hearty visitor at the Glendale State bank this forenoon. Mr. Anderson is a personal friend of A. R. Eastman, first vice president and active head of the Glendale State bank, and for a number of years was with Mr. Eastman in the banking business in Oklahoma.

Mr. Anderson was very enthused over the new bank building, its equipment, and personnel, and expressed himself in glowing terms as being very confident of a prosperous future for the institution.

Mr. Anderson was accompanied here by John Moore of Hollywood, a former banker of Oklahoma.

NO CAUSE TO COMPLA

"You of Glendale who are accu tomed to nothing but good weathe have no cause to complain of t heat during the past few days," marked James W. Mentow of Bernardino, as he passed thro here late yesterday afternoon on motor trip enjoying the scenery this section." Just wait until gets around 110 which is the com mon occurrence in San Bernardino, and then you can talk."

Mr. Mentow tried to be loyal to his home town, but Glendale struck a very responsive chord, and he is planning to bring his family at some later date and make a more extensive visit.
